Regular counseling sessions

The School Counselor Ms. Puja Jain is working with students to address an array of issues, majorly offering:

Academic support

Career counseling

Personal counseling

A session was delivered to the students of OM on how buildup their confidence level. They were also taught various tricks on how to boost themselves in different situations. This has helped them to perceive the world and people in a very healthy and positive way. And also has added an extra charm of confidence in their personality.

Leadership visit by Chegg India

We were fortunate to have Mr. Vijay, Director - Chegg India, with us visiting OM Foundation for the first time and spent the entire morning with us, wherein he communicated and interacted with the students of OM and motivated them to study hard and follow their dreams. It was a wonderful experience for the kids to meet and interact. He was amazed to see the enthusiasm and dedication of the students towards their academics and promised to visit again. He also expressed his happiness and shared his experience about this visit at OM. These visits allow the students to connect with the leaders and to ask questions and learn new things from them. OM Foundation cherishes his valuable time spent interacting with the students.
