TEACHERS' CORNER

Look what our new teachers have to say about OM Foundation.

Vikram Singh (Music Teacher)

"Joining OM Foundation as a music teacher has been a truly gratifying experience. Having previously been a part of the renowned musical band, Manzil Mystics, I now have the privilege of teaching music to underprivileged children. The students here are incredibly interactive, dedicated, and open-minded. The facilities provided are excellent, and the supportive management and helpful colleagues contribute to a friendly and hardworking environment. I am grateful for the opportunity to make a meaningful impact through music education at OM Foundation."

Nidhi Rautela (PRT English)

"I am an English teacher who recently joined OM Foundation in March 2023. My current role involves teaching students from classes 3 to 6, which is a fresh experience for me as I previously taught senior school children. Although I am still in the early stages of assessing my students, I firmly believe that every child has the potential to learn and excel if provided with proper guidance. Personally, I view this institution more as a school rather than an NGO, as my focus remains on treating every child equally and acknowledging their capabilities. Each day at OM Foundation brings new learning opportunities for me. The supportive staff and management go above and beyond to ensure my comfort and well-being. The overall atmosphere exudes positive and peaceful vibes, fostering an optimal environment for teaching and learning."

Pooja Agarwal (Functional English Trainer)

"I am an English trainer specializing in working with young learners, dedicated to helping them enhance their language skills. I recently joined OM Foundation in May 2023, following my previous teaching experience with three other NGOs. Teaching here has been an incredibly rewarding experience, as the students exhibit exceptional intelligence, creativity, and responsiveness. The school's facilities are excellent, ensuring that the children's needs and requirements are fully met. OM Foundation provides an ideal environment for both teaching and learning, offering numerous opportunities for personal and professional growth. I consider myself fortunate to be a part of this highly knowledgeable and educational institution."
